Obituary

On May 5, 1910 in St. Francis County, Arkansas, the Lord blessed Sarah and Rev. George W. Pitts with the birth of Charlie Mae, their first child. A second daughter, Erma, was born to this union. After the untimely death of her mother, her father married Sally Bonds, and nine brothers and three sisters were added to the family. Charlie Mae accepted Christ at a young age. She received her formal education in Madison, AR and attended college in Mariana, AR. After college, she returned to Madison to teach elementary school.

Charlie Mae married Odie Felder and to this union, Otis J. Felder was born. After the marriage was dissolved, she married Pernard Whitaker and five daughters and one son were born: Iris, Eloise, Gloria, Charlie, Arvis, and Esther. Charlie Mae was a loving mother to her children, and a positive influence on her family and others. She was married to Pernard Whitaker until his death in 1966.

In October of 1944, Charlie Mae and her family moved to Richmond, California, and became active members of Seaport Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. L. Thomas. She later united with Pilgrim Rest MBC, under the late Rev. C. E. Richardson, Pastor. Charlie Mae served in many capacities, including Mission President, Sunday School Teacher, Director of the Mission choir, and a member of the Birth Month Circle. Charlie Mae was instrumental in starting the C.E. Richardson Scholarship Program, which benefitted many aspiring students.

As a delegate, she attended many church conventions. In 2002, she represented the Progressive Baptist Missionary Educational District Association in the Home and Foreign Mission Outreach Special Efforts and was crowned Queen of the California State Baptist Convention at the age of 92. She loved to read and study her Bible. She was an outstanding orator and was frequently invited to speak at various events.

In 1970, Charlie Mae married Rev. F.G. Luckey, Pastor of Greater St. Paul MBC in Richmond, CA, where she was active, but she maintained her membership at Pilgrim Rest. Charlie Mae served as an Instructor for the Baptist Minister Wives of Richmond, CA and was actively involved with the Richmond Association of Minister Wives and Minister Widows.

Charlie Mae worked at the U.S. Post Office, Mac's Drive-In and Universal Life Insurance Company as an insurance agent and as an Administrative Assistant until she retired. She was also a diligent worker on the County election polls. Charlie Mae was an excellent baker and was well known for her delicious pound cakes.

Charlie Mae loved to travel. She attended many family reunions held in various states, cruised several times and enjoyed annual family trips to Lake Tahoe and Yosemite.

Charlie Mae leaves to celebrate her life and cherish her memory her children Otis Felder (Helen), Iris Morris, Eloise Hewitt, Gloria Richardson (Robert), Charlie Mae Allums, Arvis Whitaker (Kathie), and Esther Polk; 17 grandchildren; 38 great grandchildren; and 20 great-great grandchildren; six brothers: George W. Pitts, Jr. of Elk Grove, California, Theo Oliver Pitts (Nancy) of Adamstown, Maryland, Isaac Pitts of Tacoma Park, Maryland, Melvin Pitts (Geneva) of El Sobrante, California, Malvin Pitts (Gloria) and Leodis Pitts (Lula), both of Forrest City, Arkansas, and one sister Janice Smith (Marshall) of Fort Washington, Maryland, and many nieces, including Vhaness Chambers, Patricia Duckworth, and Gwendolyn Starlard, nephews and friends.

Charlie Mae was preceded in death by her mother, Sarah Pitts, her father, Rev. George W. Pitts, stepmother Sally Pitts, husbands: Odie Felder, Pernard Whitaker, and Rev. F.G. Luckey; three sisters: Erma Whitaker, Elna P. Shannon, Wilma P. Delaney; three brothers: Lemuel, James, and Charles K. Pitts; three sons-in-law: Jimmy (Tanny) Morris, Curtis Hewitt, and Charles Polk; and two grandchildren: Helen J. Felder and Kenneth Morris.

A Legend, Charlie Mae, has left a rich heritage for her family and all who loved her. She will be greatly missed by all.

Be the Best of Whatever You Are

*If you can't be a pine on the top of the hill,
Be a scrub in the valley --
But be the best little scrub by the side of the rill;
Be a bush if you can't be a tree.*

*If you can't be a bush, be a bit of the grass,
And some highway happier make;
If you can't be a muskie, then just be a bass --
But the liveliest bass in the lake!*

*We can't all be captains, we've got to be crew;
There's something for all of us here.
There's big work to do, and there's lesser to do,
And the task you must do is near.*

*If you can't be a highway, then just be a trail,
If you can't be the sun, be a star;
It isn't by size that you win or you fail -- be the best of whatever you are!*

One in a Million

*How can I describe her,
This special Aunt of mine?
She's one in a million,
She's one of a kind.*

*Her words are like magic that drives you to her,
Good advice she gives freely
If you want to confer.*

*There's a special glow about her that shows in her face and all eyes are upon her
When she enters a place.*

*You can't help but love her
She's so special, you see,
And she's quite a gal at one hundred and two
I'm sure we all would agree.*

*Yes, she's one in a million
My Aunt till the end,
She's the one I call "Sister",
She's the one I call friend.*

*Happy Birthday Sister!
I Love You!*
